O.T.H.E.R.S. organization was established in 1975 as a support or booster group for Morning Star School. The organization consists of interested members of the community, parents, former parents, and grandparents. Several civic and social associations are also members.

Today the actual cost to educate a student with special learning needs is $17,000. O.T.H.E.R.S. is committed to raising funds annually to supplement the program and help defray the operating costs of the school. These efforts help keep tuition affordable.

O.T.H.E.R.S. offers many ways to support Morning Star School. The following opportunities are available: In Honor Of, In Memory Of, Wills, Trusts, Charitable Gift Annuities, Life Insurance, and Scholarships.

This dedicated group has made it financially possible to expand the facility to its present size. It is important to increase the membership of O.T.H.E.R.S.

Some O.T.H.E.R.S. Programs

MEMORIALS

A gift in the name of a deceased person is an expression of sympathy to the family at the time of bereavement. An acknowledgment is sent to the family and published in the newsletter.

Any amount is accepted as a Memorial. When the gifts amount to $250 the person's name is engraved on a plaque hung in O.T.H.E.R.S. Hall. When donations reach $1000 the family is presented with a Perpetual Memorial Plaque.

IN HONOR OF

A perfect way to honor friends or relatives on anniversaries, birthdays, special occasions, or special intentions. Send their name and occasion along with a donation of any amount. The "honor" will be listed in the newsletter.

WILLS

A bequest made will provide continued support for God's "special" children. This will be used for the operational support of the school's exceptional education program.

LIFE INSURANCE

Persons wishing to remember Morning Star School-O.T.H.E.R.S. may make it the beneficiary of their life insurance policy.
